Habs Earn $4,000 Each

MONTREAL — Montreal Canadiens will collect $3,000 each for their performance in the Stanley Cup playoffs and another $1,000 apiece for finishing on top of the National Hockey League race.

Dividing the spoils and checking the playoff scoring records were about the only chores left to do yesterday in the wake of Montreal's 5-3 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs Saturday night in the fifth game of the Stanley Cup final.

Breakdown of the Habs' winning show that they each receive $1,250 for knocking off Chicago Black Hawks in the semi-finals. The win over Toronto means another $1,750, and a few of the Montrealers stand to make additional money on the basis of all-star selections and nominations to various awards.

LEAFS DO WELL

The Leafs make $2,150 apiece — $150 for finishing fourth in the NHL, $1,250 for beating Boston Bruins in the semi-finals, and $750 as members of the runner-up team in the final.

In the matter of playoff scoring, Montreal's Dickie Moore and Marcel Bonin came within a few points of setting Stanley Cup records.

Moore led the playoffs with 17 points on five goals and 12 assists, a total only three points short of the record held by Gordie Howe of Detroit Red Wings. Bonin, who scored 10 goals against Chicago and Toronto, was only two short of the record held by teammate Jean Beliveau.

RECORD FOR HARVEY

Defenceman Doug Harvey was the only player to set a scoring mark. His 11 assists in 11 playoff games ran his total to 58 in 11 years, three more than Howe has collected in his playoff career.

Leading scorers follow:

	G	A	Pts.	Pen.

Scroggs Wins on 21st

Dramatic Chip Shot Forces Extra Holes

Frank Scroggs is in the quarter-finals of the Vancouver Island Match Play Open golf tournament, thanks to a dramatic desperation chip shot on the 18th green at Gorge Vale Golf Club.

Scroggs, the two-handicapper from Uplands, was on the verge of elimination by the upset-minded Roy Jago of Gorge Vale when he made his shot, forced the match into extra holes, and finally won on the 21st.

He was one down playing the 18th, a par four, 410-yard hole. Jago's second shot was only 15 feet from the pin, while Scroggs was to the right of the green and 40 feet from the pin. But Scroggs' chip shot rolled dead into the cup, and the match was forced to extra holes when Jago missed his putt for a birdie three.

The 19th and 20th were halved in par, but Jago's drive on the 21st was into the woods, and Scroggs took the hole and the match with a bogey five.

HOT PUTTER

Jago, a 12-handicapper, had used a red-hot putter to win the first four holes, but collapsed and lost five straight.

Others to advance to next Sunday's quarter-finals at Uplands were Laurie Kerr, Bill Wakeham, Dr. George Bigelow, John Merriman, Jim McColl, Ron MacLeod and Ron Cush.

Kerr, the 1956 winner and defending B.C. Open champion, downed Art Donaldson of Gorge Vale, one up. Wakeham, the 1957 Canadian junior winner, upset Royal Colwood pro Bill Court, 2 and 1. Bigelow was two under par when he polished off Al Reside at the 12th.

CHAMPIONSHIP

Jack Burke Wins Houston Playoff

Jack Burke, Jr., playing a course he tramped practically every day as a boy, fired an eight-under-par 64 yesterday to beat Julius Boros by five strokes in an 18-hole playoff for top money of $4,300 in the $30,000 Houston Golf Classic.

Boros and Burke ended the regulation 72-hole tournament in a tie at 277, 11 under par. In the playoff, Burke shot 30-34—64 while Boros had 35-34—69. It was the second victory for Burke in his home-town tournament, which he also won in 1952.

The pair were given a chance to play off when Arnold Palmer did a complete collapse in Sunday's final round. Palmer, who owned or shared the lead in the first three rounds, watched a five-foot putt on the 18th green turn away from the cup to leave him with a 73, one stroke away from a tie.

Boros had begun the final round four strokes behind Palmer, while Burke was two strokes off the pace.

Vernon Loses 5-2 To Whitby Squad

TORONTO—It proved nothing was the verdict of the opposing coaches after the first game of the Allan Cup final.

Whitby Dunlops, who won the "world" hockey title at Oslo last year, outscored Vernon Canadians, 5-2, on Sunday to grab the lead in the best-of-seven final for the Canadian senior "amateur" hockey championship. Dunlops didn't seem proud of their victory and Canadians weren't ashamed of their defeat.

"They haven't got their legs yet," excused Sid Smith, playing-coach of the Dunlops. "They'll definitely improve. They can hit and they have some pretty fair hockey players."

Excessive heat and the large ice surface at Maple Leaf Gardens were blamed by Canadians for their rather listless start.

"I know our boys can play better," Vernon coach George Agar said. "A few of our boys took a bad time for an off game."

Agar said that the Dunlops "are as good as some of the teams we played out West."

Long John Henderson, once with the Boston Bruins, was the star of the opening game between the two former Allan Cup champions — Vernon in 1956 and Whitby in 1957.

Bobby Hassard, Harry Sinden, Smith, George Samolenko and Pete Babando scored for the winners. Russ Kowalchuk and Merv Bidoski got the Vernon goals.

Second game is at Maple Leaf Gardens Wednesday night.
